

Keith Ferrin

Bringing
the Word to life

TYMK

THE WORD OF GOD IS LIVING AND ACTIVE

Biblical Drama ...

... in its purest form. The script is the internalized Word – nothing added. The only actor is Keith. A stool and a glass of water are the only props. Nothing extra that might hinder the Word of God as it penetrates deep within your heart, challenges your mind, and encourages your soul.

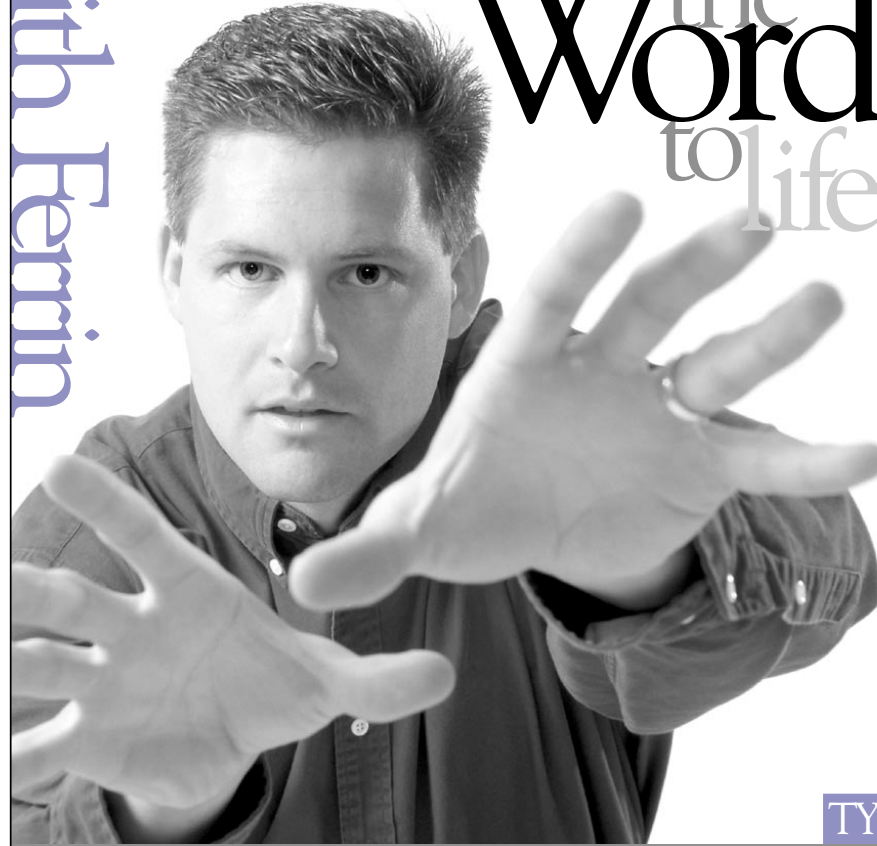

LOCATION:

DATE:

TIME:

that you may know
ministries

Keith Ferrin

Bringing
the Word to life

TYMK

THE WORD OF GOD IS LIVING AND ACTIVE

Biblical Drama ...

... in its purest form. The script is the internalized Word – nothing added. The only actor is Keith. A stool and a glass of water are the only props. Nothing extra that might hinder the Word of God as it penetrates deep within your heart, challenges your mind, and encourages your soul.

LOCATION:

DATE:

TIME:

that you may know
ministries

Personal Bio

Keith Ferrin founded That You May Know Ministries in 1996, and has been dramatically presenting Scripture, leading worship, and keynote speaking since then. Keith has presented around the United States and in Europe at churches, colleges, universities, Christian schools, military bases, outreach events, and various camps and retreats. Keith took courses in acting and vocal training at Pacific Lutheran University, where he graduated with a degree in Psychology. He also holds a Masters of Education in Guidance and Counseling, and worked for two years as an elementary school counselor. He received further dramatic training working privately with Terry Edward Moore, co-founder of the Seattle Shakespeare Festival.

Keith is also a singer/songwriter/worship leader, and has been performing concerts and leading contemporary worship since 1987. His debut project, All I See is You, was released in 1991.

In addition to acting and singing, Keith has been utilized as a speaker and Bible teacher for retreats, conferences, outreach events, and youth rallies. His practical, humorous, and thought provoking style makes the Word come alive for audiences of all ages and backgrounds.

From 1991 to August of 1997, Keith was the Pastor of Youth and Worship at Hope Covenant Church in Tacoma, Washington. Since then, That You May Know Ministries has been his full time vocation. Keith and his wife, Kari, reside in Kirkland, outside of Seattle.

Personal Bio

Keith Ferrin founded That You May Know Ministries in 1996, and has been dramatically presenting Scripture, leading worship, and keynote speaking since then. Keith has presented around the United States and in Europe at churches, colleges, universities, Christian schools, military bases, outreach events, and various camps and retreats. Keith took courses in acting and vocal training at Pacific Lutheran University, where he graduated with a degree in Psychology. He also holds a Masters of Education in Guidance and Counseling, and worked for two years as an elementary school counselor. He received further dramatic training working privately with Terry Edward Moore, co-founder of the Seattle Shakespeare Festival.

Keith is also a singer/songwriter/worship leader, and has been performing concerts and leading contemporary worship since 1987. His debut project, All I See is You, was released in 1991.

In addition to acting and singing, Keith has been utilized as a speaker and Bible teacher for retreats, conferences, outreach events, and youth rallies. His practical, humorous, and thought provoking style makes the Word come alive for audiences of all ages and backgrounds.

From 1991 to August of 1997, Keith was the Pastor of Youth and Worship at Hope Covenant Church in Tacoma, Washington. Since then, That You May Know Ministries has been his full time vocation. Keith and his wife, Kari, reside in Kirkland, outside of Seattle.

